

FIRRIATO

'CAVANERA' ETNA BIANCO

Aromas of yellow wild flowers, acacia honey, and yellow apple are offset by savory dried herbs. The palate is gentle yet unrelenting - full-bodied and a strong representation of volcanic terroir.

Style: Still white

Area of Production: Sicily, Italy

Appellation: Etna Bianco

Vineyard Rovo delle Coturnie

Varieties: Carricante and Catarratto

Soil: Sandy, loam, and volcanic

Elevation: 750-850 meters

Farming Practices: Sustainable

Fermentation: Stainless steel tanks

Aging: 6 months on fine lees in stainless steel with daily stirring, followed by 12 months in bottle.

First vintage: 2009

Production: 15,000 bottles/year