

FIRRIATO

'CAVANERA' ETNA ROSSO

Aromas of yellow wild flowers, acacia honey, and yellow apple are offset by savory dried herbs. The palate is gentle yet unrelenting - full-bodied and a strong representation of volcanic terroir.

Style: Still red

Area of Production: Sicily, Italy

Appellation: Etna Rosso

Vineyard Rovo delle Coturnie

Varieties: Nerello Mascalese, Nerello Cappuccio

Soil: Sandy, loam, and volcanic

Elevation: 750 meters

Farming Practices: Sustainable

Fermentation: Stainless steel tanks

Aging: 9 months in Slovenian oak followed by 20 months in bottle

First vintage: 2007

Production: 20,000 bottles/year